Silver Dreams. The story of Broken Hill By Pam Bayfield

A historical saga depicting life in the early days of Broken Hill, following the lives of several families as they become intertwined.

Pam Bayfield was born in Mt Isa, Queensland in 1940, spending most of her schooling in Broken Hill. She taught in Sydney for many years, including ten years at Pittwater House, Collaroy. Retiring in 1998, she began writing, after attending a writing course. This is her sixth book. Other books include "Anneke's Story", and "Knees Up Mother Brown". She lives on the northern beaches in Sydney.
